N.C. STUDENT RURAL HEALTH COALITION

The North Carolina Student Rural Health Coalition needs students for their summer program. Those interested, contact Pat O'Conner at 933-3539 (11 p.m.-MN) or Kay Lovelace at 929-5866 (daytime).

ALL AMSA MEMBERS

We will be having a general chapter meeting on Wednesday March 29 at 5:30 in the 6th floor lounge. Election of new officers will be held as well as discussion on future chapter projects and the upcoming Spring workshop in Charleston.

EDGE MONT

The Edgemont Community Clinic needs a few more volunteers to tide us over for the Spring. Any student who has completed both medicine and OB-Gyn can volunteer. People are needed for both Monday and Thursday nights. Please contact Ken Trofatter at 684-2129 or 286-2501, or Sid Gospe at 489-5635.

AMSA CONFERENCE

AMSA will be holding a weekend conference in late May in Washington, D.C. on "The Quality of Health Care: Who Decides?", An Experiential workshop to examine the underlying issues of resources allocation, planning, quality assurance, and cost containment as related to health care.

A student from Duke is eligible to attend ALL EXPENSES PAID by national AMSA. Contact Sid Gospe, Box 2755 for details.

IDAHO RESIDENTS

Any medical student from Bonneville County, Idaho, please stop by my office. You may be eligible for a scholarship.
