

SHIFTING DULLNESS

DAVISON SOCIETY NEWSLETTER
DUKE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

HOSPITAL BOX 2389

October 6 - 13, 1972

NORTH CAROLINA MEDICAL STUDENT TUITION PERMISSION FUND - The State of North Carolina provides financial assistance through the Office of Financial Aid to each North Carolinian enrolled in medical school who demonstrates financial need. Maximum amount per year is $1,500.00. For more information, contact the Office of Financial Aid, 706 Davison Building, ext. 6649.

AGING AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT OPEN SEMINAR - The Duke University Council on Aging and Human Development presents Bernard E. Nash, Executive Director, National Retired Teachers Association and American Association of Retired Persons, who will speak on "The Private Association: An Agent of Change", on Tuesday, October 10, 1972 at 4:00 PM in Zener Auditorium, Room 130, Sociology-Psychology Building. Mr. Nash was born in Massachusetts and received a Master's Degree in in Group Work and Community Organization at the U. of Minnesota, followed by graduate work in Sociology at the University. Before assuming his present responsibilities, Mr. Nash was: Deputy Commissioner, Administration on Aging, SRS, HEW, Washington, D.C.; Director, Foster Grandparent Program, Administration on Aging, HEW, Washington, D.C.; Director and Chairman, Department of Community Development, University of Missouri. Under his leadership, the AARP and the NRTA have tripled their membership and developed exciting, innovative programs. Everyone is invited to attend this open seminar.