The Lupus Foundation of America is making five fellowships available for either College or Medical Students. The Stipend will be for $1,000 for research done this summer.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL AND HEALTH CARE

The Nobel Peace Prize winning organization Amnesty International has an active chapter here in Durham. The major efforts of AI are aimed at obtaining justice for specific individuals in a variety of nations worldwide who are imprisoned because of political opinions, religious beliefs, or other matters of conscience.

Of particular interest is the Health Professionals' Urgent Action Appeals Committee here at DUMC. Members receive information and write letters on behalf of prisoners of conscience who

- 1) have an acute medical problem which is being neglected during imprisonment;
- 2) have been detained with a dubious diagnosis of mental illness;
- or 3) are health professionals themselves.

PRISON PROJECT GETS OFF THE GROUND

AMWA is sponsoring a service project at the Guess Rd. Minimum Security Prison. It will consist of the following:

- 1) Seeing clinic patients - Two second through fourth year students may sign up each week to see the prisoners without patient health problems. A preceptor has been arranged. Total time required is 3-4 hours/week.
- 2) Hypertension Clinic - Two first year students can sign up to help monitor the patients' blood pressures and educate them about their illnesses. (On Tuesday nights)
- 3) Group Therapy - AMWA is trying to pull together preceptors and interested students. This service has never been available to prisoners.

There will be more information and sign up lists in January, on the AMWA Bulletin Board outside the Post Office.

AMWA VOLUNTEER CLINICS

The American Medical Women's Association Inc. helped establish the world's first women's medical relief organization. The single purpose of this is to bring medical care by volunteer women physicians to places in the world where disease, hunger, and poor health care are still facts of life. Clinics operate in Haiti, Bolivia, and Appalachia. If you are interested in these projects, please see the folder in Linda Chamber's office.

WOMEN'S IM B-BALL

"The Disimpacters" are now 3-2 under the leadership of "Dr. A," Avis Artis, with freshmen standouts Carmen Williams and Karen Welty.
