FREE PAMPHLETS

Ciba Pharmaceutical company provides a free subscription to Clinical Symposia for those who have chosen to receive material from Pharmaceutical Companies and also registered as an AMSA member. In order to initiate this, there will be a sign up sheet in CTL for interested students who are registered with AMSA and who want to receive Clinical Symposia. The list will be removed November 12, 1982.

SENIOR LOAN PROGRAM

AMSA has announced a $5,000 Senior loan program in cooperation with Providence Professional Fund. The purpose is to help graduating seniors meet personal expenses such as interviewing for residency positions and relocating to their residency sites. Further information can be found in Dr. Shirley K. Osterhout's office.

MED SCHOOL SPORTS LOCKER

The medical school presently owns several items of sports equipment including a football, volleyball, softball, and ping pong paddle. It is hoped that additional items will be purchased in the near future including frisbees, soccer ball, and softball bat. The items presently owned are stored in a locker in the red zone basement. There is a key to the locker and a sign out log up in CTL. Any med student may get the key and sign out a piece of sports gear for up to 24 hours and for weekends. Instructions for use of key and gear are in the sign out log in CTL.

IM SPORTS RESULTS

Volleyball:

The "Easy Riders" finished the regular season at 4-5.

The "Med Spikers" finished the regular season at 5-3, and will participate in post-season tournament play. Congratulations "Med Spikers"!

Soccer:

MARATHON RUNNERS

Congratulations to all of the MS III's who participated in the Durham Half-Marathon and Ten Kilometer Road Race on October 23. They really showed their stuff by running away with several of the top places in a field totaling nearly 1000 runners from as far away as Pennsylvania and Florida.

In the 10K, Curt Alitz, David Hall, Jonathan Chang, Diane Havlir, Bill Mallon, John Dietz, and Jeff Hull all ran well, with Curt, David, and Jonathan finishing 3rd, 9th, and 19th overall, respectively. Diane took 3rd in her division.

In the Half-Marathon, Jayne Tobin, Liz Livingston, and Rusty Anderson all took part, with Jayne copping 2nd in her age division.
