SCHOLARSHIP OFFERED

The American Medical Association Education of Research Foundation is again providing a scholarship grant of $2,500 to a junior or senior student with a demonstrated interest in the communication of science. Only one student can enter from each school and financial need will not be a consideration. The Jerry L. Pettis award is named after a founder of Audio-Digest Foundation. If you have prepared material using audio-visual materials for any major project you might be eligible. For further information see Dr. Shirley K. Osterhout or the folder in Linda Chamber's office.

FIRST YEAR STUDENTS VOLUNTEER TO TEACH HUMAN SEXUALITY

A group of first-year students, unfazed by Micro, Path, and Pharm, are tacking on new challenges as "group facilitators" for Zoology 196D, Human Sexuality. They are:

Tina Alster	Mary Lou Lindegren
John Barton	Pam Martin
Tony Coles	Jim McGough
Bill Crone	Dave Molter
Bob Darwin	Stan Nelson
Brett Fischer	Jennifer Preiss
Rich Green	Navjeet Sidhu
Steve Hout	Cora Spaulding
Carol Hulka	Betsy Sumner
Lindsey Kerr	David Wilkes
Rob Kubek

They will help undergraduates discuss sexual issues on Tuesday nights, along with other medical, nursing, and physical therapy students. For those interested, medical students also teach seventh graders sex ed in Durham city schools. Contact Marvin McBride, Box 2757 DUMC, 383-4171 for further information.
