LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP IN ARIZONA

AMWA is holding a conference in Tuscon, Arizona on April 23-25. This Leadership Workshop for women in medicine has several facets such as informal goal-setting exercises. For more information, see Dr. Shirley Osterhout.

LEARN SPANISH TO AID YOUR PRACTICE

The Experiment in International Living School for International Training is offering a "Spanish for Health Professionals" program this summer, co-sponsored by AMSA. The intensive language instruction prepares medical personnel to be able to communicate with Hispanic patients and to understand their attitudes toward health care from a cultural perspective. Emphasis will be placed on communication skills and relevant vocabulary needed in medical interviews and treatment. For more details see Dr. Shirley Osterhout. This organization also offers study abroad programs.

NUTRITION COURSE OFFERED

For those interested in a nutrition course, a tutorial in nutrition with Dr. Mary Bernheim, Professor Emeritus in Biochemistry, is offered this Summer Term I, for two basic science credits. You can still sign up! For more information, contact Terry Brennan, Box 2709, 385-8026.

GET THE PICTURE?

This week's puzzle might be a little tricky. See if you can "translate" the concepts or phrases represented below. The entrant with the most correct entry will receive a gift certificate for $1.00 worth of ice cream. Don't be afraid to turn in the entry with only a few solved. As usual, stuff them into the ballot box by Wednesday afternoon. Good luck!

FROM THE STAFF

Shifting Dullness has had difficulty in keeping abreast of some topics of interest to medical students. Certain areas are quite deficient, such as Davison Council meeting coverage and intramural coverage. Furthermore, news from second, third, and fourth year students is hard to come by, since our staff is made up of first year students. Please help us help you keep informed by sending in information. The Shifting Dullness box is in Jeanne Lee's office and is yearning for greater use. Our publication schedule requires a one week delay in printing, so material should be received by the Thursday afternoon preceding publication if it is to appear the next week. Thanks for your help!!!
