

SHIFTING DULLNESS

DAVISON SOCIETY NEWSLETTER
DUKE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Hospital Box 2889

AUGUST, 1971

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON SHORTAGE IN CHESTER COUNTY, S. C.: There is an acute shortage of physicians and surgeons in Chester, South Carolina, population city: 7,500, county 30,000. More information in Office of Associate Director for Undergraduate Medical Education, 295 Baker House.

PART I - NATIONAL BOARD EXAMINATION: Part I of the National Board Examination will be given at Duke University School of Medicine on September 8 and 9, 1971 in the Hospital Amphitheatre. The deadline date has now passed and all applications should be in the National Board Office in Philadelphia. If any student still desires to take the Part I examination in September, please contact the Office of the Associate Director of Undergraduate Medical Education, 295 Baker House, immediately.