DIRECTORY FORTHCOMING

The Davison Council will publish a 1982-1983 Student Directory within the next three weeks, including the names, box numbers, addresses, and phone numbers of all medical students. Special thanks goes to Dr. Johnson for compiling the information. The Directory had been an annual project but was discontinued last year.

This Directory will be based on the information cards turned in to the Registrar. Those who have not done so will not have corrected addresses and phone numbers in the Medical Student Directory. This information must be sent in by October 7 to Walter Pharr at Box 2802, DUMC.

FELLOWSHIPS OFFERED

The National Fund for Medical Education is ready to receive applications for the Smithkline Beckman Medical Perspective: A Fellowship Program of Creative Learning Opportunities for Medical Students. Projects are to begin after June 1, 1983 and before September 30, 1984. The purpose of the program is to provide students with experience they would not encounter in the ordinary course of their education. The guidelines are broad in order to stimulate the imagination and initiative of the students and to allow the greatest flexibility in their proposals. Anyone who wishes further information may see Dr. Shirley K. Osterhout. In the last 4 years, Duke has had 2 recipients of this fellowship. Applications will not be available until October and must be completed by February 1, 1983.

EDITOR TO SPEAK

Arnold S. Relman, M.D., Editor of the New England Journal of Medicine will lecture on "The Future Practice of Medicine" at 8:00 pm, October 18. The location will be 103 Berryhill Hall on the UNC-Chapel Hill campus.

FALL 1982 OFFERINGS FROM CAPS

CAPS small group seminars are open to all Duke students. Ones of particular interest to medical students include the following:

How to Manage Stress- Learn relaxation methods, stress management techniques and new ways to cope in a variety of areas. Meets for 5 sessions on Thursdays, from 2-3:30 p.m. beginning October 21.

Asserting Yourself: The Fine Art of Speaking Up- Learn to express feelings and opinions and stand up for your rights without violating rights of others. Special attention paid to expressing anger and positive feelings, saying no, giving compliments, asking for favors and dealing with aggressive people. Wednesdays 3:30-5 beginning October 20.

For more information, call 684-5100.

ENTERING CLASS OF 1982

The first year students are diverse as a group, and include more older students than were in last year's class. Of a class total of 114, 31 are North Carolinians; second comes New York with 14, with Florida third at 8, and New Jersey fourth at 7. There are six students each from Illinois and Virginia, five from Maryland and Ohio, four from Pennsylvania, and three each from Connecticut and Massachusetts. Utah, Tennessee, Texas, Oregon, Michigan, and Georgia each had two students. Represented by a single student are South Carolina, North Dakota, Missouri, Minnesota, Maine, Georgia, Kentucky, Alabama, Colorado, California, and Alaska. Less than half the students are from former states of the Confederacy, and the total number of states represented is 27.

Of the undergraduate schools represented, Duke was first in number with 36 (32% of the class). The Chronicle reported that 49 Duke students were accepted, not enrolled, in the first year class. The University of Michigan was second with 4, while Harvard, Princeton, and UNC-Chapel Hill had three each. There are two each from Brigham Young, Brown, Columbia, Davidson, M.I.T., N.C. State, Radcliffe, Stanford, University of Illinois, U. of North Dakota, U. of Pennsylvania, U. of Texas, U. of Virginia, and Yale. Represented by one student are Bowdoin, Bucknell, Cornell, Dartmouth, Drake, East Tennessee State, Emory, Fairfield, Florida State, Franklin and Marshall, Georgia Inst. of Tech., Gettysburg, Hamilton, Haverford, Hobart, Howard, Johns Hopkins, Loyola College, Michigan State, Miami U. (OH), Oregon State, Purdue, St. Michael's College, Texas A & M, US Military Academy, U/CA/Berkeley, U/CA/Los Angeles, U. of Chicago, U. of Florida, U. of Georgia, UNC-Charlotte, U. of Pittsburgh, Utah State, Wake Forest, Washington University, Washington & Lee, and Wellesley.

Some confusion also exists over the number of North Carolina residents admitted. Duke has an agreement with the North Carolina legislature to accept 30 students per class in return for tuition grant money. In contrast, the other private medical school in the state, Bowman Gray, agreed to accept a higher percentage (67 of a class of 108 last year). Duke consistently accepts about 27% of its class from North Carolina. This entering class was no exception. Total number of applications was 3,419, with 1,495 interviews given and 114 finally enrolled.

FOR PEDIATRIC SENIORS

Students applying for residency programs in Pediatrics may be able to do a shared residency with a student from the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine. If interested, please contact Dr. Shirley Osterhout.

NEW YORK CONFERENCE IN OCTOBER

The thirteenth annual meeting of the American Academy of Psychiatry and the Law will be held in New York City October 21-24, 1982. The meeting, entitled "Critical Issues in Psychiatry and the Law" will include the following topics: Issues of Consent and Refusal of Treatment; Basic Law for Psychiatrists - Personal Injury Action, Violence, and Psychopharmacology; and International Issues in Psychiatric treatment. Dr. Shirley Osterhout has further information.

KEEP STUDENTS OUT OF MOTELS

The Admissions Office would like for medical students to put up prospective students for the night. This would help the student gain a better perspective on life here at Duke Medical Center. Anyone interested can call Barbara Franklin at the Admissions Office, 684-2985.

PUZZLE TIME

At long last comes the continuation of the tradition of Shifting Dullness puzzles under our new Puzzle Editor, Steve Feldman! A winner is drawn at random from all correct entries that are turned in. Place the entries in the Davison Society Ballot Box, located in the Mail Room, Duke South. If no entries are totally correct, all attempts will be eligible for the weekly drawing, so it pays to guess. The winner will receive a gift certificate for Baskin-Robbins Ice Cream.

This week's puzzle is a jumble on a medical topic. Each letter in the puzzle represents another letter. Following the topic are three conditions that come under it. Good luck. (Clue: M=G)

Today's topic is : P X B I M B // P S X R J U // O T J X R J X

Diffuse : I Z L T I I X V P K J Z L J

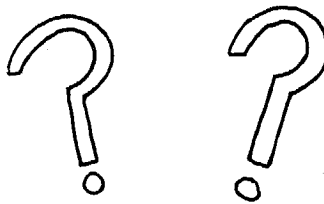

Large, blue-domed : P V E E Q M E E Q

Bulky, tear drop : Z Q J U E J R S Z F I R // C L Q V V F O X J

Send in the name of the topic along with your name, class, and box number to be eligible for the drawing.
