

A Jump Through Hyperspace

- Physician Assistant program began at Duke
- Physician Assistant History Office vision
- Duke PA archives preserved and organized
- Collection of other historical materials
- Make the materials available to a wider audience

Project Crew

- Principal investigator – Pat Thibodeau
- Historian/subject expert - Dr. Reginald Carter
- Cataloger/grant coordinator – Charlie Lackey
- Systems person - Sally Wardell
- Reference person – Marlyse McDonald
- Archivist – Russell Koonts
- Project manager – Tom Clark
- Coordination, technical processes, supervision, reports

Navigation Equipment

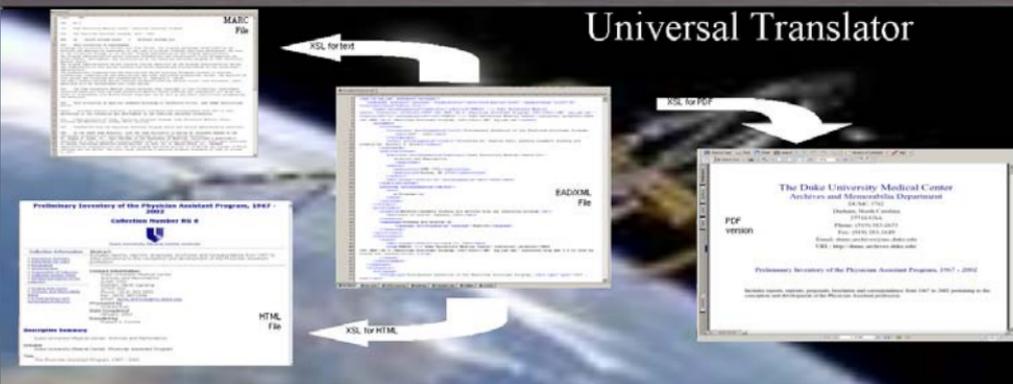

- Upgraded scanning/digital workstations
- Server space to store digitized documents
- Image management software - ACDSee

Guidance Systems

- Dublin Core
- NCECHO guidelines for establishing metadata
- NCEAD guidelines

Preserving the Past for the Future

Patricia L. Thibodeau, AHIP, Associate Dean, Medical Center Library, Duke University, Durham, NC, Charlie S. Lackey, Associate Director/Cataloging/Bibliographic Services, Medical Center Library, Duke University, Durham, NC, Russell S. Koonts, DUMC Archivist, Medical Center Archives, Duke University, Durham, NC, Sarah L. Wardell, Associate Director Information Technology Services, Medical Center Library, Duke University, Durham, NC, Mira P. Walker, OPAIR Archivist, Medical Center Archives, Duke University, Durham, NC

Folding Space Between the Past and the Future

Plot Your Course Wisely

- Plan, plan, plan
- Use available EAD resources
- Set realistic expectations, goals
- Tap into local experts
- Consider copyright permissions
- Create collection development policy
- Plan realistic digital storage
- Benchmark other projects

Creating a Course for the Future

- Templates, policies and procedures
- Standard vocabulary and thesaurus
- Digitization and preservation
 - 743 items and 3,300 pages of text
- Prototype searchable PA History archival database
- PA history illustrated virtual Web site
- Evaluation plan and best practice standards
- Network of knowledgeable colleagues

Mission Accomplished

- PA History Center <http://www.pahx.org/>
- Manual: <http://archives.mc.duke.edu/pahx/>
- Use of Web site – 65,000 hits, 4,000 visits per month
- Creation of Society for the Preservation of PA History
- Presentations at national PA meetings
- Full-time PA Archivist
- Numerous questions from students and faculty
- National feedback on content and design
- “Awesome, great work the best, what a treat for the profession and others...”

A Jump Through Hyperspace

- Physician Assistant program began at Duke
- Dr. Reginald Carters (Physician Assistant History Office) had vision of preserving the history of the PA program
- Duke PA archives preserved and organized
- Collection of other historical materials developed by Dr. Carter
- Make the materials available to a wider audience

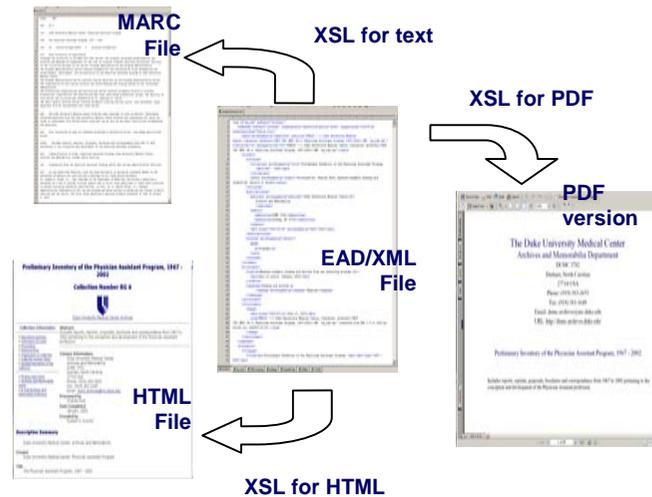

Plot Course Wisely

- Plan, plan, plan
- Use available EAD resources
- Set realistic expectations, goals
- Tap into local experts
- Consider copyright permissions
- Create collection development policy
- Plan realistic short-term, long-term digital storage
- Benchmark other projects

Guidance Systems

- Dublin Core
- NCECHO guidelines for establishing metadata
- NCEAD guidelines

Universal Translator

Folding Space Between the Past and the Future

Mission Accomplished

- PA History Center <http://www.pahx.org/>
- Manual: <http://archives.mc.duke.edu/pahx/>
- Use of Web site – over 4,000 visits per month
- Creation of and support for Society for the Preservation of PA History
- Presentations at national PA meetings
- Full-time PA Archivist
- Numerous questions from students and faculty
- National feedback on content and design
- “Awesome, great work the best, what a treat for the profession and others...”

Creating a Course for the Future

- Templates, policy and procedure manual
- Digital assessment management systems (DAMS) MARC and EAD (XML) metadata (finding aid tags)
- Specific vocabulary and thesaurus
- Digitization and preservation of 743 items and 3,300 pages of text
- Prototype online, searchable PA History archival database
- PA history illustrated virtual Web site
- Evaluation plan and best practice standards
- Network of knowledgeable institutional and organizational colleagues who can contribute to the expansion and support of the digitized collection

Mission Comparison

- Digital Scriptorium (Duke University) model
- NC ECHO Web site
- Other NC ECHO project websites
- Thesaurus best practice

Future Voyages

- Monitor (i.e., log number of hits) use of archival data base and web site by individual clients
- Determine number of links made to site from other web sites (and nature of web site)
- Survey faculty and students of 131 educational programs to assess educational value of site to their curricula and professional development - not implemented due to delay in hiring project manager
- Promote and survey health career guidance counselors to determine usefulness of site for them and students they are counseling about PA profession
- Maintain statistics on number of request made for permission to use digital images for education and research purposes
- Collect copy of papers and articles that reference site as source of information

Crew

- Principal investigator – Pat Thibodeau
- Historian/subject expert - Dr. Reginald Carter
- Cataloger/grant coordinator – Charlie Lackey
- Systems person - Sally Wardell
- Reference person – Marlyse McDonald
- Archivist – Russell Koonts
- Project manager – Tom Clark

Navigation Equipment

- Upgraded scanning/digital workstations
- Server space to store digitized documents
- Image management software - ACDSee

Allied Voyagers

Duke University Medical Center Library
<http://www.mclibrary.duke.edu>

Physician Assistant History Center
<http://pahx.org>

NCECHO
<http://ncecho.org>

Preserving the Past for the Future

Supported with federal LSTA funds made possible through a grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Services, administered by the State Library of North Carolina, a division of the Department of Cultural Resources.