FINANCIAL AIDVISITING SPEAKERS / NORTH CAROLINA EDUCATIONAL LOAN PROGRAM

Mrs. Jan Proctor, Head, North Carolina Educational Loan Program, Raleigh, N.C., and her staff have accepted an invitation from the Office of Financial Aid for a presentation on:

Tuesday, April 29
5:00 - 6:00 PM
Markee Lecture Room (M-224) Green Zone

Although this program has been in operation for many years, this is the program officers' first visit to our school.

Mrs. Proctor and her staff will describe the purpose, history, and success of the program. It is particularly gratifying to see tax dollars supporting as worthwhile and successful program as this.

The North Carolina Educational Loan Program provides educational funds to North Carolinians who are enrolled in, or have been accepted into, schools in medicine and health related fields. Upon graduation, the loan is "forgiven" upon practice in qualified areas of North Carolina.

Current recipients and potential applicants for the loan funds are urged to attend the presentation. Time has been allotted for individual questions and answers.

FREE COPIES OF FAMILY PRACTICE ANNUAL AVAILABLE

Dr. Busse's office has been given 6 copies of the hardcover annual publication by American Family Physician. The 1980 annual has excellent articles intended for the family practitioner on chronic pain, infant GI disorders, new antibiotics, menstrual disorders, and exercise tolerance testing. These volumes will be given out on a first-come, first-serve basis. See Mrs. Anne Rimmer in Dr. Busse's office.

SUMMER JOB OPPORTUNITY IN RURAL NC

Like to spend 2,4, or 6 weeks living with a family in a rural area of NC this summer while working at a Health Fair? Medical students provide free physical exams, lab work, and appropriate follow-up under excellent precepting by Duke, UNC, and local physicians. These Health Fairs are organized by the NC Student Rural Health Coalition, and sponsored by small communities with inadequate health resources. Medical students receive a stipend ($110-$125/wk.), room, and part-board. Interested? Contact Jeff Kappa, MSIII (477-8297) or Marcia Angle, MSIII (682-9041).

DUKE NORTH OPENING

The Grand Opening ceremonies for the North Division of DUMC are scheduled for 2 PM, on Sunday, April 20th. Following the ribbon cutting, everyone is invited to tour the building and participate in a Duke University Medical Center Health Fair. Refreshments will be served.

PUZZLE

The cryptogram of April 2nd was a quote from the mock turtle story of Alice in Wonderland by Lewis Carroll: "That's the reason they're called lessons," the Gryphon remarked: "because they lessen from day to day." Eighteen people submitted correct entries and were able to guess the author and work. Congratulations to Marsha Adams, MSTP student, who was the winner of the drawing. She will receive a gift certificate to Baskin-Robbins.

PUZZLE CONT'D

This week's puzzle is an Across-Tic. Fill in the terms which correspond to the clues given below. Then use the letters to the side of each word and the numbers below the spaces for each word to fill in the quote outlined in the boxes. If you can complete any of the words of the quote before you identify the terms, the corresponding letters and numbers should aid you in filling in the words of the list. Your solution will reveal a statement made in 1896 by the "Pall Mall Gazette" of Britain, after hearing of Roentgen's first use of the X-ray.
