DAVISON SOCIETY NEWSLETTER
DUKE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

HOSPITAL BOX 2889

October 1 - October 8, 1971

PHYSICIAN NEEDED: The town of Ramseur, North Carolina is seeking an M.D. to establish a practice in their community. The town is served by the county hospital located in Asheboro. Ramseur is a small town of approximately 1500 persons and has been with only one doctor for years. The present M.D. is nearing retirement. The community feels that the town has always been under-staffed and also feels that the situation presents an excellent opportunity for the establishment of a new practice. For additional information contact Mr. Roger Stout, Secretary, Ramseur Jaycees, Ramseur, N. C. 27316.

DEPARTMENT OF ANATOMY SEMINAR: The Department of Anatomy will sponsor a seminar on Wednesday, October 6, 1971. The guest speaker will be Dr. Caleb Finch, Professor of Anatomy, Cornell University Medical College, who will speak on "Cellular Pacemakers of Ageing in Mammals." The seminar will be held at 4:00 p.m. in Room 264 Bell Building. Coffee will be served at 3:30 p.m. in 262 Bell.

DUKE UNIVERSITY COUNCIL ON AGING AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT: will present a seminar on Tuesday, October 5, 1971 featuring John B. Martin, Special Assistant to the President for the Aging and U.S. Commissioner on Aging. Mr. Martin will speak on "New Initiatives in the Field of Aging." The seminar will begin at 4:00 p.m. in the Duke Hospital Amphitheater on the 5th. Everyone is invited to attend this open seminar.

VOLLEYBALL: All medical students and their guests are invited to play volleyball every Saturday in the East Campus Gym from 2:00 - 4:00 p.m.
